Durable CNC Red Nylon Inserts by Uratech . Precision, Strength & Universal Compatibility

When it comes to CNC tooling, durability and precision are non-negotiable. At Uratech, we take pride in designing and manufacturing high-quality CNC red nylon inserts engineered to protect your tool holders and enhance workshop efficiency. Built with the highest standards, our inserts are widely trusted across the machining industry for their long-lasting performance and exact fit.

Universal Compatibility for All Major CNC Holder Types

Uratech CNC nylon inserts are available for all major CNC tool holder tapers, including:

CAT Tapper Holders

BT Taper Holders

DV / NMTB Tapers

ISO Tapers

HSK Holders

KM Tooling

CAPTO Holders

VDI Tooling

And many more...

Whether you operate a high-volume CNC shop, a manufacturing facility, or a tool room, you'll find inserts that perfectly match your existing tools.

Engineered for Maximum Durability

Our signature ½-inch flange thickness provides unmatched strength and stability. These inserts are designed to be non-breakable, ensuring long-term use even under demanding conditions. They prevent metal-to-metal contact, reduce wear, and enhance the life of CNC tool holders and carts.

Key Benefits of Uratech CNC Nylon Inserts

Heavy-duty ½" flange thickness

Crack-resistant, non-breakable red nylon

Exact fit for every tool taper

Corrosion-resistant & chemical-resistant polymer

Designed for smooth loading and unloading of tools

Ideal for both vertical and horizontal CNC carts

Available Without Purchasing Tool Carts

We understand the importance of flexibility. That's why Uratech sells CNC nylon inserts separately. You don't need to purchase a CNC tool cart to get these inserts. Order the exact quantity you need, anytime.

Same-Day Shipping Across North America

To keep your shop running without interruption, Uratech offers same-day shipping on all CNC nylon inserts. Whether you're replacing worn inserts or upgrading tool storage, your order reaches you quickly and reliably.

Why Choose Uratech?

With years of expertise in CNC tool storage solutions, Uratech is a trusted name for machinists who value precision and durability. Our inserts are proudly engineered to withstand the toughest machining environments, offering long-term value and consistent performance.
