

Uratech 40 Taper CNC Tower – CAT 40 Tool Cart & CNC Tool Holder Storage

The Uratech 40 Taper CNC Tower is the ultimate solution for organizing and protecting your CNC tooling in professional machine shops and industrial environments. This heavy-duty 40 taper tool holder cart is designed to securely store CAT 40 holders, keeping your workspace organized while ensuring your tools are safe from damage. Perfect for operators who demand efficiency, the Uratech 40 Taper CNC Tower provides a reliable CNC tool holder storage solution that combines durability, mobility, and maximum capacity.

Engineered for practical use, this tool cart for CAT 40 holders is equipped with compact steel trays and nylon inserts, allowing each tool to sit securely in place. The cart's robust construction and powder-coated steel ensure it withstands the rigors of daily shop operations, making it ideal as a CNC tooling storage solution for high-volume manufacturing environments.

Key Features of the Uratech 40 Taper CNC Tower:

Heavy-Duty Steel Construction - ensures long-lasting durability for everyday industrial use.

Compact Steel Trays - organize multiple 40 taper holders efficiently, reducing setup time.

Mobility - smooth-rolling casters make the cat 40 tool cart easy to move between workstations.

Universal Compatibility - designed to hold CAT 40, BT 40, DV 40, NMTB 40, and ISO 40 tool holders.

Optimized Tool Management - quickly locate and access tools, improving workflow efficiency.

Beyond simple storage, the 40 taper tool holder cart enhances operational efficiency by centralizing all CNC tool holder storage in one accessible location. By keeping tools organized by size, type, or frequency of use, your team can reduce downtime, prevent tool damage, and maintain a clean shop floor.

This Uratech 40 Taper CNC Tower is also designed for flexibility: it serves as both a stationary cnc tooling storage tower and a mobile CAT 40 tool cart that can be moved close to machines when needed. With a focus on industrial-grade quality, this cart ensures your tooling investment is protected while supporting a streamlined, productive workspace.

Upgrade your shop today with the Uratech 40 Taper CNC Tower, a reliable 40 taper tool holder cart and CNC tool holder storage solution that combines durability, mobility, and efficiency. Perfect for professional machine shops, this tool cart for CAT 40 holders provides the ultimate in organized, safe, and accessible CNC tooling storage.
